The Situation.

It is very difficult to say what the situation is. The only certain thing is, that no one seems to know where Lee is or what are his intentious. The sum of the dispatches. up to this writing, seems to be that General Hooker does not know where Lee is, and is afraid to go very far from his base to look for him, for fear Lee may ontnumber him. A full account of this wonderful plant may be found in the 11th edition of the U.S. Dispensaory, pages 1387 and 1388. A series of experiments in which Dr. Bull has been for years engaged, has just been brought to a successful termination, and he is now enabled to offer to the public a combination of Cedron with other approved tonics, the whole preserved in th best quality of coppor-distilled Bourbon whisky, which he is confident has no equal in the world. He might furnish a volume of certificates, but the public have long since learned to estimate such things at their true value. The safest planis, for every one to test for himself the virtues of a new medicine. Give the
